April 2010

From the President

The SCLMM Themes for 2010 2011 are:

Also I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us." Then said I, "Here am I; send me." Isaiah 6:8 (KJV).

Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might, for in the grave, where you are going, there is neither working nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom. Ecclesiastes 9:10 (NIV).

South Carolina Lutheran Men in Mission will continue to provide financial support for the development of mission congregations in the South Carolina Synod through the New Mission Start Fund, the Gift Fund, the Loan Fund, and the Segelken Fund and have opportunities to make disciples of men by sponsoring gatherings, local congregational meetings, regional (conference) meetings, and Bible Studies with the National Lutheran Men in Mission Master Builders Bible.

South Carolina Lutheran Men in Mission is supporting five mission churches: Manatial de Vida in north Columbia, Cristo Rey in West Columbia, Breath of Life in Blythewood, Crossroads in Indian Land (Fort Mill), and Faith in Pickens. Each mission church received checks from the Gift Fund during the recent SCLMM Convention Banquet.

The purpose of the Men in Action (MIA) Ministry is to make disciples of men ages 18 to "45-ish." A rafting trip is scheduled for the second weekend in July of this year. The One Year to Live (OYTL) Retreat will be held on April 30 through May 2, 2010, at the Kinard Conference Center.

Finally, a big thank you to the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation (in Columbia), which allowed South Carolina Lutheran Men in Mission to use a photograph of its chancel mural "Ascending Christ" as the cover of the 2010 SCLMM Directory.

Amen for Lutheran Men.

Heber Rast

I want to begin this my first words for the "Epistle" by expressing my gratitude to you for selecting me as your next Executive Director. It is good to be "back home" and again working with the men in South Carolina. While much remains the same as when I was previously involved, at the same time change is evident in the work of our men. We have a tremendous opportunity before us for service to our Lord and our synod.

I realize now more than ever what a great job Dean Ganis did in this position and the difficult job that I have in following his leadership. I want to publicly thank you, Dean, for your leadership over these years and the example you have set. Speaking for all of the SCLMM, thank for and we wish you well in your retirement.

I am of the mindset that if "things aren't broken, you don't need to fix them." In other words, do not look for any immediate changes from me! I do think, however, that we constantly need to evaluate what we are doing and our objectives if we are to progress. SCLMM initiated a Long Range Planning exercise last fall and we want to continue that this spring. This is vital if we want to grow in our spiritual commitment and our mission to the church. We have a great group on men in SCLMM and we look forward to new and exciting ways that we can support our mission effort and the growth of our SC Synod.

I look forward to seeing you at our SC Synod Assembly and our Mission Breakfast.

Heartland Conference

by Randy Cannon, President

This is an exciting year for the Heartland Conference. We have had our first quarterly meeting at Mt. Olivet, Chapin. We had an excellent presentation by Captain Chris Cowan of the Richland County Sheriff's Department.

Due to personal problems, I could not attend the quarterly meeting, but thanks to Mt. Olivet LMM, Dan Sandel, Mike Whitlock, and Rev. Jerry Trantham. I hear that it was an excellent meeting.

Our next meeting will be May 20 at Summer Memorial in Newberry. We are looking at several speakers for this event.

Our Youth Meeting will be held at Grace Lutheran Church in Prosperity and we are currently looking at a date of August 15. We will review the date a little later, as we usually like to have the Youth meeting before school starts.

We are excited about Ladies Night this year. Several years ago we had Hannah Horne, of WIS-TV as a speaker, and she has agreed to be our speaker this year. We do look forward to this event. The meeting will be held at Holy Trinity in Little Mountain.

As you can see, the meetings have been spaced out pretty good throughout the conference, so you should be able to attend at least one, if not all of our quarterly meetings.

Well, that's about it for this report.

AMEN FOR LUTHERAN MEN.

2010 Convention Highlights

Reciting one of his two themes,

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then said I. "Here I am; send me." (Isaiah 6:8) incoming Lutheran men President, Ken Heckel was passed the gavel by outgoing President Doug McKenzie at the 2010 Lutheran Men in Mission Convention held at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior in Greenville, SC on Saturday, February 21, 2010. Also installed as officers were Vice President Joe Fulmer (Messiah Mauldin), Promotional Secretary Dan Camp (Living Springs Columbia), Secretary Brain Dooley (Faith Pickens), and Pastoral Advisor Rev. Mark Cerniglia (Our Savior Greenville).

Ken Heckel, the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors will be emphasizing the objectives and goals with all the church units. Several significant goals are:

1. Emphasizing that the Lutheran man read their Bible every day;
2. Lutheran Men is not just mission congregations, but also "men" & "young men's" ministry.
3. Remind the rostered leaders that we need their participation;
4. Work hard to help struggling units and start/restart nine (9) men's units;
5. Meet the financial goals approved by the board for 2010.

For the banquet, held at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior, each of the mission congregations brought a large group of church members to help celebrate the acceptance of the Gift Fund checks. Dick Hankins, Gift Fund Chairman praised all of the churches in the SC synod that supported the Gift Fund and made possible the exciting event of passing out the checks, totaling about $35,000 to 5 mission congregations:

One Year to Live - Men's Ministry

Every man goes through life carrying something on their shoulders. No man is much different from the next guy. Sometimes it is their marriage. Sometimes their job. Sometimes their friend or family relationships. Take a pick.

A wife of a participant in LMM's recent One Year To Live retreat sent us this quote to use and pass along. The effects are different for each man that attends but there is always an effect.

Feel free to copy and paste and pass along to some men that may be interested in enhancing their lives and spirituality.

A OYTL Wife's Testimony

"For people who do not know our situation, we seem like we have a normal marriage; however, our marriage has been on shaky ground for the last 5-6 years. There has been very little communication, no respect for one another, and discussing feelings of any caused an immediate argument. Basically, we didn't like each other.

So when Joe told me he was going to the 'One Year to Live' retreat with a bunch of the guys from church I just thought it was another excuse to get out of the house. I say this is because God and the church wasn't his thing at the time.

However, since the retreat, Joe has changed. He couldn't tell me a lot about what they did but I do know he met and experienced God there. Now when we go to church he wants to meet with God and be moved by his Spirit. Since the retreat, we have been getting along much better. We actually have fun talking and doing things together. The comment from Joe that stuck with me was this one: 'We all change through the years and God still loves us. We must learn to love each other like God does.'

Sincerely, Joe's Wife (Joe is not his real name)

Region 9 LMM News

One Year To Live retreats are here for you to get involved in. We will have 2 retreats in 2010 in SC, One on April 30 – May 2 at Kinard and another in November 2011. If you sit in church during the sermon and day to yourself, "There must be something more to faith than this" or "I need to find out what God is needing me to do for him" or "My life is a mess, maybe God and the guys around me can help me figure this thing out called LIFE and Faith". I did and I have been blessed ever since. Live your faith!

It is not too early to start planning to attend the LMM National Gathering in Denver, Colorado in July, 2011.

Tired of the old boring meetings? Get a small group started. Do it anywhere and anytime according to your lifestyle and timetable. Let me know if you would like our Master Builders Bibles to help you start it up. You will have 6 men carry you out of this world, you will need 6 men to carry you through it. Think about it.

“24th. ANNUAL CLIFF BOURGUIGNON GOLF TOURNAMENT”

HOLE SPONSORSHIP FORM

Each year the South Carolina Lutheran Men in Mission (SCLMM) sponsors this golf tournament, focusing on the fellowship of Christian Men and Women while promoting the goals of our auxiliary. This year 240 golfers from all over the state will gather for a day of fun and frolic that renews and refreshes us for service to Christ.

This year the proceeds from our tournament on May 10, 2010 will be used to grow our SCLMM Scholarship at Newberry College (check it out at www.sclmm.org). We pray this endowed scholarship will encourage a South Carolina man or woman to serve the church in either an ordained position or lay church leadership position by providing financial assistance to help defray the expenses of attending Newberry College.

Much of our funding support comes from hole-sponsorships (minimum of $100 per hole-sponsorship). We encourage each team, LMM units and conferences, and individuals who own a business to sponsor one or more holes. Every dollar that is received for sponsoring a hole will go to the SCLMM Scholarship at Newberry College.

The cost is as follows: Indicate which course or courses you wish to have your sign on.

Lexington Country Club                    $100 _____

Golden Hills Country Club                $100 _____

If you have no preference on which course your sign is placed, please check this block _____.

Our goal this year is to add $15,000 to the SCLMM Scholarship at Newberry College. Please consider sponsoring one, two, or three or more holes. Your generous contribution will be greatly appreciated and acknowledged back to you for your tax records and will certainly aid some deserving student to obtain a quality education.

For each hole sponsored, a professionally prepared sign will be placed at a hole and recognition will be given at the Awards Banquet and in publications after the tournament.
